Social Media and Youth: Raising Children in the Digital Era

Instructor: Amy Burzinski

The digital world offers youth a powerful sense of connection and identity - two critical aspects of development. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and more enable youth to say, act and make rapid choices that can have long term effects. The youth of today have opportunities to use this new domain for good or bad, in a situation where the digital world can seem like a second family. We need to not only acknowledge but compete with this second family to keep having a positive influence on our children’s lives. Based on up-to-date research, this presentation will look at what parents, teachers and helping professionals can do to helpfully engage youth in positive dialog and reflection about social media and their citizenship in the digital world.

Lunch in a Jar

Instructor: Judi Strauss

This current trend is popular for a reason. What a great way to prepare and carry our lunches. The idea is to layer ingredients in a Mason jar so that you can prep a week's worth of lunches and take one with you to work each day. In class we'll talk about what ingredients work and which to avoid. There will be a lot of combination choices. Each participant will make their own lunch to take home with them - jar included! $9 food fee payable to instructor at class.

Summer Salads

Instructor: Judi Strauss

Salads can be side dishes or main dishes and nothing quite matches a properly tossed salad. Still, salads can be so much more than lettuce. In class you'll learn how to make salads of all types and learn how to make salad dressings too. There will be plenty to taste in class and recipes to take home, just in time for those summer picnics or outside barbeques. $8 food fee payable to instructor at class.

Cooking with Herbs

Instructor: Judi Strauss

Cooking with herbs (and spices) can enhance even the simplest foods. It can also be a way to reduce the use of salt in cooking. In this class you'll learn the basics of cooking with herbs, both fresh and dried. Buying, preserving and storing herbs will be discussed as well as extending their shelf life. There will be a cooking demo and plenty of food to taste and recipes to take home. $9 food fee payable to instructor at class.

Cool Summer Dining

Instructor: Judi Strauss

Summer is a time of year when we like to entertain family and friends at picnics, parties and cookouts, but still want time to relax. You can do both. In class you'll get plenty of recipes and tips for preparing meals requiring little or no cooking that still taste great. You might even have time for the beach. $9 food fee payable to instructor at class.

Watercolor with Jan Mettee

Instructor: Jan Mettee

Increase your knowledge of design from those first preliminary sketches to your watercolor paintings. Through demos and individual critiques, Jan will help you to "see" and build upon a style that is uniquely yours. Two classes are taught on Tuesdays, so register for both and spend the entire day! Teacher will contact the students with a supply list.

Drawing through Photography

Instructor: Brian Jacobs

Students will learn how to use their cameras/smartphones to take effective photos they can then use as references for their artwork. Learn how to digitally manipulate color, value, contrast and more to convert your 3-D "vision" to 2-D. Brian will assist you in translating your photos into a drawing or painting through methods of copying. Hands-on projects throughout the class will give students opportunities to practice all techniques and concepts taught. Bring a pencil, sketchpad, some photographic references, and a digital camera and/or smartphone.

GENERAL REFUND POLICY

Because the decision to maintain classes is based on the enrollment at the first class, no refunds are guaranteed after the first session. Participants assume the risk of changes in personal affairs or health. There is no refund for materials purchased. The Recreation Department reserves the right to terminate a class with fewer than the required number of registrants. Programs are subject to change of location and/or personnel. If a program or class is cancelled by our office due to insufficient enrollment participants will receive a full refund. All other refund requests will be subject to a 5% Finance Department processing fee, no less than $5 and no more than $25, with the exception of City Day Camp fees.

DISABLED POLICY

Over the years, many people with various disabilities have participated in Beachwood Recreation programs. If you or a member of your family has an impairment, we want you to know that your participation in Beachwood Recreation programs is encouraged. Staff members are sensitive to your needs and will do everything possible to assist you. Most facilities are accessible to the disabled individual. If you are interested in participating in a program but you're not sure about the accessibility of a facility, please call Beachwood Recreation and ask us about specifics.

ELIGIBILITY

Registration is open to all residents of the community and surrounding areas. Beachwood residents are encouraged to enroll early since some programs have maximum quotas. Each participant must provide his or her own insurance.

FEES

Course fees vary and must be paid in full at time of registration. ONE CHECK MAY BE WRITTEN OR ONE CHARGE USED FOR MULTIPLE CLASS REGISTRATIONS. Make checks payable to Beachwood Recreation. No post-dated checks will be accepted.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE

Deadlines are used as a tool to determine whether there is enough interest in a class/activity to invest time and money. If a class minimum isn't met by the deadline date, the activity may be cancelled. Does missing the deadline mean I can't get into the class? In some cases, except sports leagues and camps, participants may still be able to register for an activity until the class is filled. But early registration guarantees you and your family members a spot in your favorite activities.

INCLEMENT WEATHER CANCELLATIONS

When the Beachwood City Schools are not in session or are dismissed early due to inclement weather, all daytime, afternoon and/or evening Recreation classes will not be held, regardless of weather changes. Classes missed due to bad weather or other 'acts of God' will be added on to the end of the session whenever possible. Beachwood Recreation however reserves the right to terminate any class with fewer than the scheduled number of sessions, without issuing a refund or a credit. Programs held in other districts (i.e. South Euclid-Lyndhurst) follow their respective building and/or school closing schedules. Feel free to call the Recreation Department weekdays between 8:00 – 4:30 p.m. for class cancellation information at 216-292-1970.
